"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.

Buffalo Valley, Route 1

The many friends of our fellow townsman, Jap Eskew, regret very much to hear of his recent accident at Cookeville in which he fell out of the window of a hotel and came very near injuring himself fatally.

Sam K. Ferrell of Route 1, a prosperous farmer, was in town Monday on business.

C. H. Clark, carrier on Route 1, is in Nashville attending the annual convention of rural letter carriers.

Miss Myrtle Maddux is visiting friends in Gordonsville.

A. B. Thompson was in Cookeville on business Monday.

Well, it is getting dry again. Wheat threshing is about over with a fairly good yield.

Fred N. Maddux visited relatives on Big Indian Creek last Sunday.

Work on the two new pikes now under construction continues with a rush.

We congratulate Putnam County on the stand she has taken with reference to good roads, and we hope soon to see our good sister county, Smith, do likewise.
MORE LATER.

This is one of our first sales and we have put on a sure enough, real genuine reduction sale, sufficient to do you good. It will pay you to buy now.

Oklahoma City

Alright for fear some of you may think we Oklahomans are dead or blown away I'll make another effort to miss the waste basket.

We have had quite a bit of dry weather but, most of the state has just been visited by a good rain which is making everyone feel good.

Still as the writer said last week anyone naving the western fever will do well to get rid of the malady before he leaves home. If he doesn't he will likely fare like the writer sometime ago, who thought he would come to Oklahoma and be her next governor. Lots of people come to this state expecting to find every other person carrying a Colt's on each hip, wearing high heel boots and spurs just like the pictures on the cover of any Wild West novel. Lots of people who never come have that opinion. Such people once here soon realize that they, themselves, are the greatest novelty on the horizon.

Blanketed Indians and cowboys are almost as much of an attraction here as in some parts of the east.

The new Skirvin Hotel will be ready for opening Aug. 20th. This bids fair to be one of the hosteleries in the Southwest.

The furniture alone will cost $80,000.

C. H. Russell, Vice Pres., of the Chamber of Commerce, is finishing the plans for a $100,000 wholesale tea, spice and coffee house here.

Carey College will open its first term Sept. 15.

Plans are on foot to build a new Interurban line to Shawnee.

$5,000,000 have been spent here in building operations in the past six months. Buildings representing over $4,000,000 are under construction now.

Henry Overholser, who is spending the summer at Carlsbad Bohemia and is a leading director in the State Fair plans to visit the great fair at St. Petersburg, Russia before he returns. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

The Glorious Fourth passed with no accidents and no fires which is some record for a city of 70,000.

Two new rail roads are practically assured for this city; the Misseuri, Oklahoma and Gulf, and the Ft. Smith and Western. We have four roads running through here now.

Pauline, send us a potato, please. They are only $3.00 per bushel. I want it for a souvenir. The lowly Irishman is certainly getting to be appreciated these days.

A delegation of Endeavors from here are attending the International Christian Endeavor Convention which is in session at Atlantic City.

About twenty-five of us attended the State Christian Endeavor Convention in Tulsa last month. We certainly enjoyed the convention and got a great deal of good from it. Oklahoma City has the third largest C. E. Society in the world. It is the society of the First Christian Church.
